

Chinese Horoscope

The Year of the TIGER

1902, 1914, 1926, 1938, 1950, 1962, 1974, 1986, 1998, 2010
Corresponding Western Sign: Aquarius

Tiger people are sensitive, short-tempered and capable of great sympathy for those of whom they are fond of. In Asia, the tiger stands as a protector of human life. Courageous and stubborn, tiger people can also be selfish and somewhat mean.

The Year of the RABBIT

1903, 1915, 1927, 1939, 1951, 1963, 1975, 1987, 1999, 2011
Corresponding Western Sign: Pisces

Rabbit people are fortunate. They are smooth talkers, talented, ambitious and virtuous. They have fine tastes and other people treat them with great admiration and trust. Rabbit people are also financially lucky. They can be a bit conservative, somewhat pedantic and temperamentally melancholy.

The Year of the DRAGON

1904, 1916, 1928, 1940, 1952, 1964, 1976, 1988, 2000, 2012
Corresponding Western Sign: Aries

People born in the year of the dragon are energetic, capable, sensitive, brave and single-minded in their devotion. They are also excitable, short-tempered and sometimes quite stubborn. The most eccentric of any in the cycle, the dragon symbolizes life and growth.

The Year of the SNAKE

1905, 1917, 1929, 1941, 1953, 1965, 1977, 1989, 2001, 2013
Corresponding Western Sign: Taurus

People born in this year are often deep thinkers. They speak little but possess tremendous wisdom. They usually have tremendous sympathy for others. They are determined in what they do and hate to fail in anything. Although they are calm by nature, they are internally most intense.

The Year of the HORSE

1906, 1918, 1930, 1942, 1954, 1966, 1978, 1990, 2002, 2014
Corresponding Western Sign: Gemini

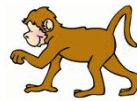

People born in the year of the Horse are wise and talented and usually good with their hands. They are quick in everything they do and are able to divine other people's meanings easily. However, they are impatient, hot-blooded and extremely independent.

The Year of the SHEEP

1907, 1919, 1931, 1943, 1955, 1967, 1979, 1991, 2003, 2015
Corresponding Western Sign: Cancer

People born in the Year of the Sheep can be highly accomplished in the arts and by nature are passionate in whatever they do and believe in. They are also often shy, pessimistic and uncertain over what direction they should take. Wise and gentle in their ways, sheep people are easily stirred with pity for those who are more unfortunate than themselves.

The Year of the MONKEY

1908, 1920, 1932, 1944, 1956, 1968, 1980, 1992, 2004, 2016
Corresponding Western Sign: Leo

People born in the Year of the Monkey are in the erratic genius phase of the lunar cycle. Clever and skillful, there are few fields in which they cannot be successful. Perhaps because they are so often praised for their talent and flexibility, they often look down on others.

The Year of the ROOSTER

1909, 1921, 1933, 1945, 1957, 1969, 1981, 1993, 2005, 2017
Corresponding Western Sign: Virgo

Cock-year people are deep thinkers. They are always busy and devoted to their work. Although they are ambitious, they often are not far-seeing and are somewhat improvident. Their fortunes usually resemble waves, sometimes up, sometime down. Occasionally they are unheeding of other people's feelings.

The year of the DOG

1910, 1922, 1934, 1946, 1958, 1970, 1982, 1994, 2006, 2018
Corresponding Western Sign: Libra

Dog year people have a deep sense of duty and loyalty, are extremely honest and always do their best in relationships with other people. But they are also somewhat selfish and very stubborn. Throughout history, person born in this year have been the champions of justice.

The year of the BOAR

1911, 1923, 1935, 1947, 1959, 1971, 1983, 1995, 2007, 2019
Corresponding Western Sign: Scorpio

People born in the Year of the Boar are usually chivalrous and whatever their ambition, do what they must with all the strength they have. Boar people make few friends, but when they do, they make friends for life.

The year of the RAT

1900, 1912, 1924, 1936, 1948, 1960, 1972, 1984, 1996, 2008
Corresponding Western Sign: Sagittarius

People born in the Year of the Rat are often most charming, diligent and thrifty. But they are also fussy about small matters and tend to be somewhat penny-pinching. They are easily angered but are quite honest and have a tremendous capacity for pursuing a course to its end.

The Year of the OX

1901, 1913, 1925, 1937, 1949, 1961, 1973, 1985, 1997, 2009
Corresponding Western Sign: Capricorn

People born in the Year of the Ox are usually patient and speak little. They inspire confidence in others, and this allows them to achieve great success. However, they can be eccentric and quite bigoted. For all their placid and easygoing ways, they are remarkably stubborn and act rashly on occasion.